LIPROFOOD
THE FOOD INNOVATOR

LIPROFAT

The fat powders of LIPROFOOD are based on vegetable oil in combination with protein and carbohydrates. These products can be widely used in food applications where powdered fat ingredients are required, like bakery, desserts and ice cream mixes. Dependent on the chosen type, you benefit from improved creaminess, organoleptic properties, milky-creamy appearance, improved mouthfeel.

FLEXIBILITY

We control the supply chain from raw materials up to finished products. Due to our modern production facility and our up-to-date warehouse, you can rely on us to deliver with greatest care. Our expertise and flexible stock management methods ensure that you will always receive the right solution in the right volume at the right time.
